

You're
Welcome
Here.

EUCC Multilingual Community Empowerment Navigator

Eden United Church of Christ (EUCC) in Hayward, California is hiring a Multilingual Community Empowerment Navigator to support the work of the EUCC Community Empowerment Team.

Position Overview

The Community Empowerment Navigator will work under the Community Empowerment Coordinator to empower community members through direct engagement to access direct services, benefits, education, and programs for which they may be eligible.

Responsibilities:

- Successfully complete EUCC First Aid, AED, and CPR trainings
- Successfully complete EUCC Safer Congregation training
- Outreach to community members and engage in event turnout
- Engage in 1:1s and follow-up with community members who receive services
- Offer vaccine appointment navigation and administer Community Health Surveys
- Utilize the EUCC internal referral system for the following referrals: food security, benefits enrollment, emotional wellness and mental health, and job assistance
- Support EUCC Continuum of Care community service model
- Support EUCC and Community Resilience Coalition partner community events
- Submit timely monthly outreach and referral reports
- Attend Community Empowerment Team meetings

Qualifications:

- Ability to be on feet for sustained periods of time
- Strong interpersonal and relational skills, practices cultural humility, a team player
- Fluency in English and Spanish or Mandarin/Cantonese
- Ability to successfully pass a state and federal background and credit check

Classification: Part-Time Non-Exempt

Compensation: $28/hr.

Schedule: January 2024, Mondays-Thursdays with occasional weekend work

Benefits: Holiday pay, sick time and vacation accrual, and workers' compensation

Reports to: Community Empowerment Coordinator under the supervision of the Director of Community Resilience Programs. The Senior Minister and Executive Director is head of staff

How to Apply: Please submit an electronic file of your resume (preferably in PDF format) and a cover letter (outlining your qualifications and interest in this position) to marvin@edenucc.com.

Eden United Church of Christ is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Date Posted: 12/13/23